290. The bottle in which said tablets for antiseptic purposes of bichloride of mercury are sold, dispensed or given away shall have the word "Poison" blown in one side of said bottle, and a label on the opposite side bearing the word "Poison" in conspicuous letters.

An. Code, sec. 258. 1914, ch. 794.

291. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of sections 288-290 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense, or be imprisoned in the county or city jail not less than thirty days nor more than three months, or both, in the discretion of the Court.

Health—Spitting on Cars.

An. Code, sec. 259. 1904, sec. 238. 1902, ch. 581, art. 43, sec. 38A.

292. It shall be unlawful for any person to expectorate or spit on the floors, sides, seats or platforms of any railroad or railway passenger cars in this State, under a penalty of three dollars and costs, one-half of said fine to go to the informer or party arresting and furnishing the evidence upon which the offender is convicted. And for the purposes of this section all railroad or railway conductors and brakemen running on passenger trains are empowered to arrest such offenders and take them before the nearest justice of the peace at the next convenient stop of said train within this State for trial, and such justices are given jurisdiction in the case. In default of payment of fine and costs any party so convicted shall be sentenced to jail for not more than five days; provided, however, that smoking cars in which cuspidors are not placed by the company operating the same shall be exempt from the operation of this section.
